She expects many guests this winter and is preparing for them.

MARION COUNTY TEACHERS

A Brief Report of Their Meeting in Ocala Saturday

The Marion county teachers' meeting of Saturday in the armory was the largest and most enthusiastic ever held in this county. Superintendent Carn's circular, which urged them to come and not loiter on the streets and in the stores, had its effect. They came in good season, many accompanied by their supervisors, and sat through the three hours' session like heroes bent on hearing the first word spoken and the last to drop from the lips of experience and wisdom.

Among the leading teachers present we noted those from the Ocala Graded School, except Will T. Gary, Miss Irma Porter and Miss Bull, who had good excuses for being absent. We also noticed Mr. Miller of McIntosh; J. W. Bishop, J. M. Graham, G. J. Strozier, Blitchton; T. H. McCoy, Sand Hill; Will Wesley Smith, Moss Bluff; W. H. Russell, Grahamville; J. W. Lyles, Miss Donnell Griffin, Anthony; J. W. McKinnon, Fort McCoy; J. E. Stevens, Misses Maude Moser, Annie Mixson, Louise V. Hane, Nellie Hooper, Josie McClure, Miss Garsdon and a large company of others whom the reporter did not know by sight.

Among the supervisors, we observed Col. L. P. Miller, Oconee; J. C. Pillans, Electra; William Blitch, Sand Hill; J. W. Colbert, Marshall Swamp; J. W. Perkins, Russell; H. W. Long, Martel; J. B. Cappleman, Fort King; H. D. Forbes, Indian Mound; George McRae, and several others whose names have now slipped our memory. These indispensable auxiliaries—the supervisors—backing their teachers, tell the story of the interest that entered into the gathering.

The first thing in order was the election of officers. The old ones were re-elected unanimously, and deserving they are of the distinction conferred. They are Professor Russell of Grahamville, president; Miss Sarah Bull of Ocala, secretary.

Miss Bull being absent, through illness, Mrs. George Ross of Martel was chosen secretary, pro tem., and a capable one she proved to be.

President Russell made a few remarks on supervisors. He said he had a splendid man for his school. His only trouble was diffidence and a belief that he (Russell) knew more about school matters than he (the supervisor) did, and hence he would have no say in the conduct of the school.

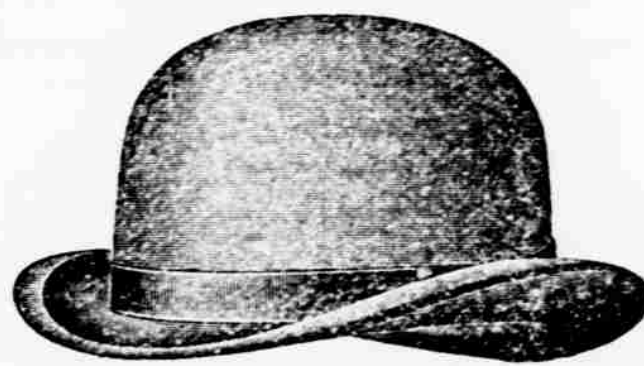

He said this was a grave mistake. A supervisor should be with the teacher, and, together, by counsel and assistance, they should work to bring forth the best results.

After the president's timely remarks, it was discovered that no vice president had been named, so Superintendent Carn was made to fill that place. Also that there was no program committee, and Mr. Carn was again impressed. He named as his assistants Will T. Gary, Miss Nellie Stevens, A. S. Miller and Will Wesley Smith.

Superintendent Carn then said the date of the next meeting should be named, and it was ordered that it should take place Saturday, November 25.

The regular program was taken up, and Professor Griffin, principal of the Ocala school, spoke on "Discipline."

It was no effort at oratory, but a plain, common sense talk, drawn largely from his personal
